

Father Matthew Gray is named Scout Chaplain

THE CATHOLIC MISCELLANY

COLUMBIA—Bishop Robert E. Guglielmone has appointed Father Matthew Gray, parochial vicar at St. Joseph Church in Columbia, as chaplain for Catholic Scouting in the Diocese of Charleston. The appointment letter was read during the annual Scout convocation held Feb. 3 (see related story on page 13).

Father Gray

Father Gray has helped lead two Scout emblem retreats and the eighth annual Catholic Camporee.

He will be one of the chaplains for the 2013 National Scout Jamboree in Mount Hope, W.V.

The chaplaincy is a three-year appointment and Father Gray succeeds Father Jeffrey Kirby, who is the Region 14 Scout chaplain over Georgia, the Carolinas and Florida, and the programming chair for the upcoming St. George's Trek.
