Scouts earn top medals at convocation

MOUNT PLEASANT—Bishop Robert E. Guglielmone honored seven Girl Scouts and 16 Boy Scouts/Crew members with awards at the Scout Convocation in Columbia on Feb. 3. Above are a group of Scouts from Christ Our King-Stella Maris School, including Rey Robinson, a seventh-grader who earned the Ad Altare Dei award, and girls from Troop 482 who earned Mary, the First Disciple religious emblems.

The bishop challenged the group to increase the promotion of religious emblems at all levels, saying he would like to see 60 Scouts at the convocation next year.
